Foreword

Dear Colleagues,

Once again, I thank you for coming to Taipei to attend the 2nd Asia-Oceanian Conference of Physical and Rehabilitation Medicine (AOCPRM).

The publication of the proceedings is for you to have an easier access to view the important and innovative works that the reputable speakers have presented in this conference. We also hope that a wider audience can have the opportunity to read about the contents of this conference through this publication.

I really appreciate all the time and efforts that the speakers have contributed in making this conference possible. I can assure you that after listening to the seminars and attending the workshops that the conference have provided can definitely assist you positively in your future academic and clinical works.

I believe that the enclosed proceedings will be extremely valuable for all of us. These proceedings witness the latest developments of physical and rehabilitation medicine in Asia and Oceania region. It is indeed touching to see that the research works have continued to blossom to high levels in all fields of PMR, from cell to society.

Sincerely yours,

Simon FT Tang, MD
Chairman of the Organizing Committee
The 2nd AOCPRM Meeting in Taipei, 2010
